Catalog Description:Study of creativity. Short storywriting in English and Turkish. Use of background gained in different fields to create new ideas. Creativity and various ideas and theories on the concept. Creativity and everyday life. Collective memory. Analyses of short stories from different countries.	Textbook / Required Material : -
Course Structure / Schedule : (3+0+0) 3 / 6 ECTS
Extended Description:In this course we will explore the genre of the short story and develop an understanding of the fundamental tools employed by fiction writers, including character, dialogue, point of view, narrative distance, image, and language. We will read masters of the short story and learn how to become effective and respectful critics of published work as well as the work of peers in the class. By reading and discussing texts, students will gain practice in thinking critically about literature, representation and denoted and connoted meaning in written texts. Students will be introduced to techniques that writers use to create and improve upon their own short stories.
