WRITING ABOUT THE TOPIC:

Directions: You will have 60 minutes to write about the topic of “RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT”. Recall the issues that have been covered today. Now consider these issues as you answer the question below in an academic essay. You will be graded on the language (50%) and the organization/development (50%) of your essay. Make sure you answer the essay question directly, i.e. without going off topic. Your essay should have:

- an introduction paragraph which has a clear and well-structured thesis statement,
- one or two well-developed body paragraphs with topic sentences, supporting sentences, and details/facts/examples,
- and a concluding paragraph.

Question: WHAT ARE THE EFFECTS OF RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT ON SOCIETY?

You may organize your ideas and make an outline on the back of this page. You will NOT be graded on your plan.
