Furkan Sahin has graduated from Kocaeli University, Visual Communication Design department. After graduating he had been working for various international/local brands in agencies in Istanbul as a designer and an art director. He won the Epica, Eurobest, Golden Drum, Crystal Apple, Felis, Red, Golden Spider and GMK awards with his works. In 2016, he represented our country in France as the "Cannes Young Lions-Turkey winner". In the same year, he was selected as the "Art Director of the Year" in the Dream Team selection made by Mediacat Magazine. In 2018, he founded his own design studio, FUHA Design Studio. With an interdisciplinary approach in the studio, he designs projects that connect with technology in the fields of "user experience, user interface design and brand identity" together with his team and acts as the creative director of the projects. With his designer identity, he contributes to the development of GMK - Graphic Designers Professional Associations and the design industry. He has been a board member of GMK since 2021. He has been working as a lecturer since 2022 in the Department of Visual Communication Design at Işık University and teaches in the field of "user interface design".
