

MOCK EXAM

17 APRIL 2015

Name & Surname: _____

Student number: _____

Exam Room: _____

INTRODUCTION TO THE TOPIC

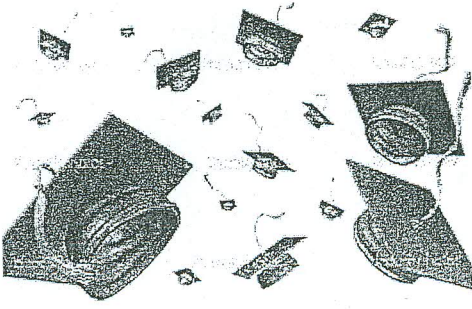

Directions: You will have 5 minutes to look at the pictures and read the information on the back of this page.

This information will introduce the general topic of the exam and the questions are to encourage you to think about what information you will read and hear. The topic will be the same for all parts of the exam.

You will NOT be graded on this part of the exam.

UNIVERSITY

University education is different from high school education in many ways.

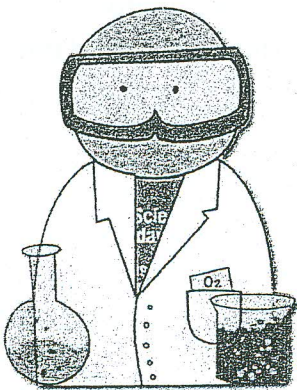

What are the differences between university and high school?

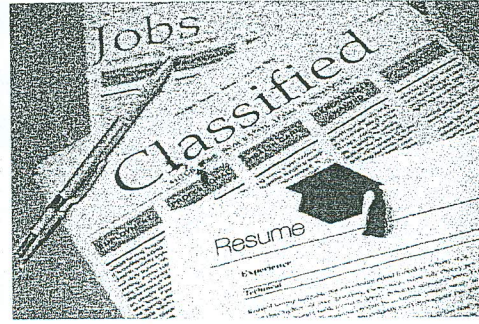

What are your expectations from Işık University other than a diploma?

Universities are places for academic research.

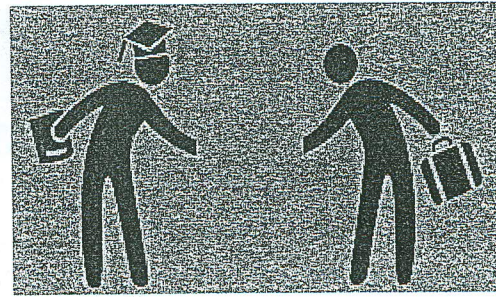

Academic research leads to improvements in science and technology.

There are some skills that employers look for from university graduates.

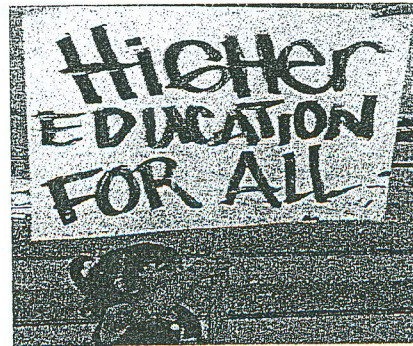

What do employers expect from university graduates?

Choosing the right university and the department is very important for a happy future.

Is the number of universities in Turkey enough for everyone to get a university education?

Is university education necessary for everyone?
